

PRICE

Mr. Price says that he is positive that he talked to Henry Stevens night of Sept. 14th on the beach and that he looked at his watch and told the exact time, and he has a very good reason to remember it on account of some business he had to do on next day, but Henry Stevens does not remember Mr. Price.

PIARD, John B.

Claims he saw Henry Stevens night of 14th and also the next morning. The time and date are fixed in his mind because he had to go to the hospital next day and he was suffering so that he could not go to bed or sleep that night.

p. 26

Piard said that in the morning he saw Henry Stevens at the train.

AUSTIN (Station Agent and Western Union operator at Lavalette)

AUSTIN brought a night letter from Mrs. Stevens in New York to Henry Stevens and gave it to Henry Stevens in the garage Saturday morning 16th. It was in script and read as follows: "Come up on Tuesday, stay till Thursday take in ball games."

p. 45

About 3 o'clock daylight saving time Saturday afternoon the 16th Austin or his brother came along the boardwalk and handed Henry Stevens telegram with the remark: "This one is important." Telegram read: "Edward Hall has been killed. Come to my house." Signed "E R Capperder or Edward Capperder" - one of the two.

p. 46

This also was in the hand-writing of the agent. On being handed the telegram Henry Stevens stated to agent in the presence of Eger, "My, it must have been an automobile accident."

p. 46a

About 4.20 daylight saving time Henry Stevens bought a ticket to New Brunswick from the agent.

p. 47

Henry Stevens believes that he sent wire to Edwin Capperder and Mrs. Stevens thru station agent at Lavalette just prior to taking train for New Brunswick.
